About the Health Care Proxy Form

The New York State Health Care Proxy Form is an important legal document. Before signing, you should understand that:

1. This form gives the person you choose as your agent the authority to make all health care decisions for you, including the decision to remove or provide life-sustaining treatment, unless you say otherwise in this form. “Health care” means any treatment, service, or procedure to diagnose or treat your physical or mental condition.

2. Unless your agent reasonably knows your wishes about artificial nutrition and hydration (nourishment provided by a feeding tube or intravenous line), he or she will not be allowed to refuse or consent to those measures for you.

3. Appointing a health care agent is voluntary. No one can require you to appoint one.

4. Your agent will start making decisions for you when your doctor determines that you are not able to make health care decisions for yourself.

5. You may write on this form any examples of the types of treatments that you would not desire and/or those treatments that you want to make sure you receive. The instructions may be used to limit the decision-making power of the agent. Your agent must follow your instructions when making decisions for you.

6. You do not need a lawyer to fill out this form for you.

7. You may choose any adult (18 years of age or older), including a family member or close friend, to be your agent. If you select a doctor as your agent, he or she may have to choose between acting as your agent or as your attending doctor because a doctor cannot do both at the same time. Also, if you are a patient or resident of a hospital, nursing home or mental hygiene facility, there are special restrictions about naming someone who works for that facility as your agent. Ask staff at the facility to explain those restrictions.

8. Before appointing someone as your health care agent, discuss your health care wishes and this form with them to make sure he or she is willing to act as your proxy. If they consent, be sure to provide them with a signed copy of the Health Care Proxy form. Your health care agent cannot be sued for health care decisions made in good faith.

9. If you name your spouse as your health care proxy and you later become divorced or legally separated, your former spouse will no longer be your agent, by law. If you would like your former spouse to remain as your agent, you may note this on your current form and date it or complete a new form.

10. You have the right to continue making health care decisions for yourself as long as you are able to do so, even after you sign this form. Treatment cannot be given to you or stopped if you object and your proxy will not have any legal power to make health care decisions for you.

11. You may revoke your proxy’s authority at any time by informing your agent or health care provider verbally or in writing.

12. You may express your wishes or instructions regarding organ and/or tissue donation on this form.
